

The Bottom Line:
You are _____ by Jesus.

The Christian is not only one who _____ Christ, but one who is _____ by Christ.

Just as God see's and knows all of our _____, He also sees and knows all of our _____, service, and generosity.

Paul says: "I want to thank you for two things: your love for _____ and your love for God's people, the _____."

Appreciated people exchange _____ for _____.

Appreciated people exchange _____ for _____.

It doesn't matter how long you're a _____, there's always something _____ to learn about Jesus.

Appreciated people exchange _____ for _____.

When you think it's about your name, you get _____, but when you realize it's about Jesus' name, you get _____.

If we would be concerned primarily about the name of Jesus and the well-being of the church, it would _____ our hearts from bitterness.

One of the keys to strong Christian leadership is _____.

The shortest distance between two people is _____.

When you _____ Jesus and you know that he appreciates you, it becomes very easy to talk to him about everything.

Appreciated people exchange _____ for _____.

Appreciated people exchange _____ for _____.